Proposer: Heather den Houting

Seconder: Philip Gardner

Rationale

Regulations are a tool that are designed to give operational guidance to the church. Regulations can only reflect heads of power that are found in the Constitution and Basis of Union and any policies (conforming to the Constitution and Basis of Union) that have been agreed by the Assembly. Well drafted regulations should allow each part of the church to understand and operate under its particular function and fully understand the responsibilities associated with that function.

Why is this important for the Church at this time?

As identified above, the consultation conducted throughout 2020 revealed the primary issues of frustration identified with the Regulations were in managing the complaints and discipline process within the Church. Further, that consultation revealed a strong sentiment the current disciplinary process was not fit-for-purpose and in need of immediate overhaul. That sentiment has been reinforced by contemporary experiences in attempting to deal with current complaints being dealt with by Church Councils, Presbyteries, Pastoral Relations Committees, the Committee for Counselling and Committee for Discipline.

The Assembly has determining authority in matters of governance of the church, and as a result only the Assembly may make and amend the Regulations (c.62 Constitution). While the Assembly Standing Committee is empowered to act on behalf of the Assembly between meetings in respect of any of the responsibilities of the Assembly, the power to amend Regulations is limited by Regulation 3.10.2. This outlines the process for amending regulations. As a result the Assembly Standing Committee can only act to amend the regulations where the Assembly in session has resolved to delegate that power to it.

In order to address the need to immediately review the Regulations relating to complaints and discipline, it is recommended the Assembly make the proposed resolutions set out above, noting the Task Group has recommended some minor amendments to the Framework of Principles (marked-up below) as approved by the Assembly Standing Committee, as a result of feedback received to date.

Framework of Principles (amended)

1. Overarching Principles

The Regulations are to:

- (i) enshrine the principles, ideals and ethos of the Basis of Union and the Constitution, ensuring consistency with those founding documents;
- (ii) ensure consistent and comprehensive guidance in the exercise of the roles, powers and responsibilities across the different councils of the church;
- (iii) recognise and manage the interconnectedness of the different councils of the church in relation to those roles, powers and responsibilities;
- (iv) offer clarity and reflect contemporary expectations in relation to discipline, misconduct and appeal processes.
- (v) complement and dovetail with contemporary HR, WHS, industrial, privacy, safe ministry, and whistle-blower policies and procedures.

2. General Principles

2.1 Only members, adherents and Ministers are eligible to make a complaint.

2.2 The process of how to make a complaint, including the form of the complaint, to be determined by the Synod.

2.3 The entity tasked with dealing with a complaint is empowered to engage an independent investigator when considered appropriate, though that entity remains responsible for determining the matter.

2.4 The continuation of the disciplinary process where the Respondent has resigned is to be at the discretion of the decision maker.
